Mission Statement

The Interdenominational Theological Center (ITC) is a Christian Africentric ecumenical consortium of seminaries and fellowships that educates students who commit to practicing justice and peace through a liberating and transforming spirituality to become leaders in the church and local/global communities.

Degree Emphasis:

Three interrelated but distinctive professional emphasis define the vocational objectives embodied in the Master of Divinity program at The Interdenominational Theological Center.

A. Congregational Ministries
Spiritual Formation and Mission, for those who view spiritual growth and outreach (including spiritual direction or evangelism) as primary aspects of their vocational identity.

B. Public Space
Community organizing, for those who view the intersections of public space and communities of faith as primary aspects of their vocational identity.

C. Academics and Teaching
The Academic emphasis for those called to teach and research in theology, biblical studies, religious studies and related fields.

Cost of Attendance:

Tuition .......... $14,000
(Tuition rates are subject to change, and do not include travel and accommodation during residential intensives.)

For more information or to apply online now, please visit itc.edu/apply.now